Estate Planning & Elder Law Attorney

Providing legal services and estate planning for families, seniors and people with special needs is more than crunching numbers or signing documents. It is about you, your family, and your goals; everything that makes you unique. Whether you are a young adult choosing your first lawyer, an established worker planning for retirement or someone facing illness and disability, your case will be handled with skill, competence and caring. You will learn all of your options, and receive guidance and support as we implement your choices.
